Christmas in November . . .

The annual Grange Christmas Bazaar is scheduled for Saturday, November 12, from 9 AM to 2:30 PM. Soon Grange bakers will be busy making all sorts of goodies for our Bake Sale table. This is a very popular event and customers return year after year for our homemade treats. We'll also be serving a tasty lunch to the many shoppers who come to see the handmade items offered by over twenty local vendors. And the coffee is FREE and piping hot!

If you're looking for something unique you won't find in a store, come by for items ranging from handmade soaps and jewelry to warm fleece vests - you won't be disappointed. And stay for a hot lunch and free coffee, and of course a cookie or two!

President's Paragraph

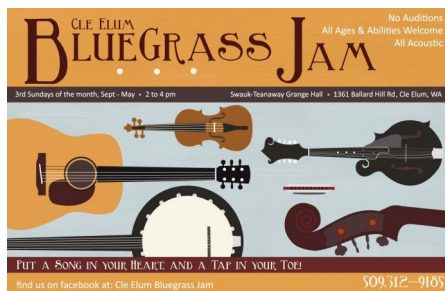

Our newest grandson, Isaac Edwin, born August 16 to our daughter Jenny and son-in-law Josh Humphrey. I love being a grandma!

We were approached by the Kittitas County FFA Livestock Judging team with a request to help them represent our county and state at the national FFA competition this month in Indianapolis, IN. Team member Andrew Clarke gave an overview of what this entails at our August meeting. This young man is the grandson of Granger Bev Allenbaugh. A senior this fall at Ellensburg High School, this 17 year old has a herd of angus and angus cross beef cattle that he works alongside his parents' herd. The members were impressed with what these young people have accomplished and voted to award the five member team (pictured at right) $500 to help with their costs in going to nationals. Team members will share the highlights of their trip and competition later this year at the Grange.

It's going to be a busy year at the Grange. I hope you will take the opportunity to come out to the community-minded events your Grange offers. Better yet, I hope you will volunteer to help out in some way. It's the best way to feel part of the Grange, and that's a good thing!

Are you a closet guitar picker? Do you enjoy listening to bluegrass music? Our hall is home to the Cle Elum Bluegrass Jam, a group organized by Jacky and Gary Fausset, that meets the third Sunday of every month from 2-4 pm at the Swauk-Teaaway Grange. This jam is open to all levels of acoustic 'pickin'. They don't require any auditions or commitments to attend every month. They do hope to encourage people to get together in a beautiful country setting to play and sing traditional American music. The first meeting, September 18th, was attended by 40 folks, both players and audience. The next date is October 16th. Grab your fiddle, guitar or banjo - or just come to listen!

Fall brings a buzz of activity for Auxiliary members! In kitchens throughout the county, apple butter is being made to sell at the Hunters Breakfast on October 15. And we'll need lots of baked goodies for our Christmas Bazaar & Bake Sale on November 12. If you can bake for the Bazaar Bake Sale, please contact Barb Hamel at 509-674-2982.

Carel Edgerly will host the October 7th Auxiliary meeting at her home at 541 Peoh Place, Cle Elum. Call Carel at 509-674-5744 for directions. Peggy Rusho has offered to host the November 4th Auxiliary meeting at her home at 431 Bull Elk Road, Cle Elum. Peggy's number is 509-674-5275. Donna Carollo will host the December 2nd meeting at her home at 4700 Teaaway Road, Cle Elum. Donna's number is 509-674-2373. These meetings start at noon with a brown bag lunch and the hosts will provide a beverage and dessert.

We want to welcome two new Grange members this quarter. Carolyn Berglund lives in the Hidden Valley area of Cle Elum. She and her husband John are self-employed, and Carolyn enjoys painting with the High Country Artists. As a matter of fact, she contacted me to thank the Grange for allowing the artists' group to paint up at the hall and that led to her decision to join our organization. We're glad you enjoy the beautiful vista the Grange offers, Carolyn. It truly is a unique and special location, a wonderful setting for our Grange!

Cle Elum resident Craig Nevil also joined our Grange this quarter. Craig works as a stockbroker on the West Side, but enjoys living in Cle Elum. Being able to raise his kids in a small town environment is very important to him. Volunteering for things he believes in is also important to Craig. Whether it's supporting a new community pool or starting a community garden, he gives generously of his time and energy. Glad to have you on board, Craig!

We are sad to report we have lost two long-time Grange members this quarter.

Dick Goodman

William Richard "Dick" Goodman passed away August 3rd in Ellensburg. Dick was born March 17, 1920 in Entiat, Washington. He joined the Grange in June of 1952 and was a Gold Sheaf member with 59 years of membership.

Arthur "Art" Sandberg passed away at his Cle Elum home on August 25th. Born March 26, 1930 in Renton, Washington, Art graduated from Issaquah High School in 1948. We send our condolences to Jo Anne, his wife of 60 years. Both Art and Jo Anne joined the Grange in 1976, making this their 35th year of membership.

Both of these men were familiar faces at Grange events and we will sorely miss them.

Folk music, mixed with a little bluegrass and blues, comes to the Grange Saturday, November 19th, when we welcome Dianne Wood Bochsler and Tara Caldwell Wolfe (pictured at right) of Cabin Fever NW to our stage. We are pleased to welcome these talented singer/songwriters from Bellingham to our Grange. Their beautiful harmonic blend is described as "smokey, smooth, rich, buttery, honey-wrap-me-up-in-the-warmth perfect." Doors open at 5:30 pm, potluck at 6:00 pm and the concert at 7:00 pm. Admission is $5 and a potluck dish to share.

Our annual Christmas Dinner is slated for Sunday, December 4th at 1:00 pm. Please bring side dishes to go along with roast turkey. Come by to enjoy a wonderful meal, good friends, and a chance to sing the Christmas Carols we all love.
